FIDEL

A STARTLING NEW FILM ON FIDEL AND CUBA TODAY

96 minutes/color/16mm

FIDEL is the first—and only—personal film profile of Cuba's leader. Director Saul Landau, the highly esteemed New Left author/filmmaker, and his crew spent weeks travelling with Fidel throughout the Cuban countryside and living in intimate association with him.

What has emerged is a major document of our times, an extraordinary in-depth report on Fidel and the continuing revolution. Beautifully photographed in color, it shows Fidel among his people, listening, arguing, philosophizing, laughing, cajoling, reminiscing. Funny, tragic, always surprising, the film will amaze you with its breadth and candor.

FIDEL includes never-before-seen footage of the Bay of Pigs invasion and of Fidel and Che in the mountains during the revolution. There are frank interviews with political prisoners and a very moving section on Che, called "The Ballad of Che Guevara."

FIDEL is a film of the high excellence you have come to expect from REVIEW PRESENTATIONS. For more information about FIDEL and about our repertoire of innovative cinema, write or call collect:
